- 2 Barron's dictionary of American sign language [Book] 419 POO

Sign language--Dictionaries.

Barron's Educational Series 2007 304 p. : ill.

Presenting ultra-clear, close-up color photos that depict more than 1,000 signs and their meanings, this book pairs photos with the words they designate and dispenses with traditional word definitions. Thus, the emphasis is placed on the information that every signer needs: correct formation of hand shapes to eliminate confusion and make communicating in ASL virtually effortless. Where appropriate, the photos are supplemented with directional arrows to indicate hand or arm movements, and all photos include succinct written descriptions of hand and finger formations. Checked and edited by ASL experts, and supplemented with notes on the history of sign language, this volume makes a superb resource for members of the hearing-impaired community, for those who work with them, and for all others who wish to learn the American Sign Language.

- 3 The Bipolar handbook for children, teens, and families [Book] real-life questions with up-to-date answers 616.89 BUR

Bipolar disorder.

New York : : Penguin Group 2008 276 p.

This book tackles every area of the disorder: causes; medical treatment and psychotherapy; strategies for creating a healthy lifestyle; and preventing, coping with, and treating bipolar episodes. More than five hundred questions and answers address how to choose the right doctor or specialist for your child, what treatment and medication protocols are best and how to reduce stress to prevent manic and depressive episodes. Special chapters on practical strategies for academic success, building healthy relationships, issues that specifically affect teens versus smaller children, and coping techniques for families and friends further explore the impact of the disorder on daily life.

27 The Outliers [Book] the story of success 302 GLA

Success--Psychological aspects.

New York : Little, Brown and Company 2008 309 p.

In this stunning new book, Malcolm Gladwell takes us on an intellectual journey through the world of "outliers"--the best and brightest, the most famous and the most successful. He asks the question: what makes high-achievers different? His answer may pay too much attention to what successful people are like, and not enough attention to where they are from: that is, their culture, their family generation, and the idiosyncratic experiences of their upbringing.
